Copyright

Any use, including digital use, of borrowed images, including those taken for later use, requires, for every usage, the agreement of the archive. Additional editions cost 50% of the initial fee. The archive is not able to grant the right of usage to images of works to which the Sprengel Museum Hannover or, alternatively, the Kurt and Ernst Schwitters Foundation does not have the copyrights.

All copyright laws apply to all images borrowed from the archive. The responsibility for upholding these laws lies with the person using the image concerned. To obtain permission to use an image, please contact the organisation responsible for administrating such laws in Germany:

Image Credits

Every use of images of works belonging to the Sprengel Museum Hannover or the Kurt and Ernst Schwitters Foundation must include credits informing the reader as to where the image originated from, e. g. Kurt Schwitters Archive at the Sprengel Museum Hannover.
Photograph: Michael Herling / Aline Gwose

Any image taken of works that are not part of the Sprengel Museum Hannover or not taken by a photographer commissioned by the museum should list the credits thus: this photograph was taken of a work from the Kurt Schwitters Archive at the Sprengel Museum Hannover.

Compensation

Should an image on loan from the archive be lost or damaged, the following compensation is expected:
for an Ektachrome print: 153 €
for a b/w-print: 26 €

Additional claims for compensation are not necessarily covered by this payment. Payment of compensation does not entitle the party paying to either the right of use of the image nor possession thereof.

Violation of these conditions will force the museum to charge an additional fee:
When the image credits are left out or incorrect, the fee for usage will be increased by 100 %.
Misuse of the images increases the fee for use of the images by 500 %.

I agree to all of the conditions mentioned
